

AUSTRIANS RETAKE
CARPATHIAN PASSES

Attempt to Relieve Cracow and Przemysl and Drive Force
From Hungary.

LONDON, Dec. 15.—The extreme end of the battle line in Poland continues to see the most severe fighting. In the center extremely bad weather is the rule and operations have been checked. In the south the Austrians, with the aid of the troops withdrawn from Serbia, are making a tremendous effort and appear to be pushing back the Russians in the region of Cracow. In the north Russian reports of a victory at Mlava are confirmed by an official statement given out in Berlin. The Austrians have retaken several passes of the Carpathians and are not only attempting to clear Hungary of Russian troops, but are also planning campaigns to relieve Cracow and Przemysl. In the center Warsaw seems to be safe for the time being. The Russian victory at Mlava apparently means that General von Fraibach, who started out from East Prussia to strike Warsaw from the north, has been soundly beaten. It is unofficially reported that this northern German army has been split in two parts, and that the Russians are pursuing the fleeing Germans back across the frontier.

Belgian Woman Asks
Funds to Aid Country

Before a large audience, including a number of the more prominent men and women of Washington, Madame Laila Vandervelde, wife of the Belgian minister of state, in an address last night at First Congressional Church, described the distressing conditions of the Belgian people and made an appeal to contribute generously toward the relief of her suffering fellow countrymen. Madame Vandervelde is making a tour of the United States and Canada, describing the plight of her people and soliciting the aid of the American people. At last night's meeting $1,150.50 was contributed, there being general checks for $100 dropped in the plate. Through Madame Vandervelde's efforts more than $20,000 has been raised for the relief of the Belgian people. The various Belgian relief committees in the different cities she has visited. Dr. Alexander Graham Bell presided at last night's meeting and presented the speaker. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Washington Century Club, of which Mrs. Thomas W. Sidwell is president.

Removal of Alleged
Leper Is Requested

The Commissioner sent to the Treasury Department today a letter asking for the removal at the expense of the federal authorities of Emil E. Grable or Charles H. Randall, who was apprehended here December 9 as a leper, and now shares his noxious cell in the Anacostia branch occupied by John Early. Grable claims to have come here from St. Louis. His extradition is requested under a section of the interstate quarantine regulations, which provides that any person who presents symptoms of leprosy and who is traveling, or who has left the State where he resides, shall be detained, and if found to be a leper shall be returned to such State or removed to such quarantine station as the Secretary of the Treasury may designate. Two letters asking for the removal of John Early have been sent by the Commissioner to the Treasury Department, neither of which has received a reply. Early arrived here from the quarantine station at Diamond Head, Wash., Dec. 12.

Christmas Trimmings
Cheaper This Year

CHICAGO, Dec. 15.—Christmas will come cheaper this year, according to an announcement today. Prices for practically all the Christmas trimmings, from Christmas to Yule trees, are below what they paid last year. Cranberries and celery are lower in price than last year. The price of holly has been cut in two, and Christmas trees are on the market in unusual abundance.

BOISE, Idaho, Dec. 15.—Pleasure seekers on the mesa recently witnessed a genuine turkey trot. One of a group of about twenty turkeys, under the leadership of a juvenile cock, was seen to be trotting in the city, it being against the ordinance, but despite the fact that the turkey trotting was outside the city limits, Mr. Lowe, concluded that he had better inspect it. He is now glad he did so, for he has come to the conclusion that the turkey is the most maimed bird on earth, that genuine turkey trotting is not vulgar in the least, but is quite a dignified pastime. This particular turkey trot was held at one of the country homes in the mesa close to town. The turkey had a large loggia, which is screened in and extends across the entire side of the house. On the loggia the turkey trot was held, and a group of friends were dancing, and the turkey was trotting in a little bit of a jump in between and an occasional "cluck."

SECOND BELGIAN AID
SENT BY DISTRICT

Clothing and Mixed Foodstuffs
Are Included in Latest Shipment From Relief Branch.

Thirty-five cases of clothing, 1,000 cans of condensed milk, and eight boxes of mixed foodstuffs, were shipped today from the headquarters of the District Belgian Relief Committee. The boxes are being sent to New York, where they will be placed aboard one of the relief vessels. It is hoped they will reach the victims by Christmas. This is the second large shipment of clothing and food which the committee has sent to alleviate the suffering of the Belgians.

Cash contributions continue to pour into committee headquarters, as well as donations of clothing and foodstuffs. A check for $50 was received today by Mrs. John A. Logan, chairman of the committee from the Men's Club of Christ Church, Georgetown. The sum represented the proceeds of an entertainment.

A delegation of women from the Community Circle, Chevy Chase, sent in a quantity of new clothing today which, they stated, had been made by the women of the circle. The garments were packed in a separate box and went with today's shipment. A bride party, the proceeds of which have been turned over to Mrs. Logan for the use of her committee, was given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. William Catto, at the Logan Hotel, Thirteenth street and Iowa circle. Among those present were Madame Havelin, wife of the Belgian minister; Mrs. John Ford King, Mrs. Duncan U. Fletcher, and Mr. and Mrs. Duval, of the Dover House, Md.

Mrs. Colby Lectures on
"Women in Literature"

The genius of women in literature was shown today in the lecture at the New Ebbitt by Mrs. Clara Bewick Colby. The part women have taken in developing the novel was referred to at length by the lecturer in her talk on "Women in English Fiction."

"English women writers did for the English novel what French women had done in the preceding century for the French novel," Mrs. Colby said. "They made it so pure in thought and expression that, as Bishop Huet was able to say of the French romances of the seventeenth century, 'you'll scarce find an expression or word which may shock chaste ears, or one single action which may give offense to modesty.'"

The lecture will be repeated this afternoon at 4:45 o'clock. Mrs. Colby will not lecture during the holidays, resuming her course of Wednesday talks in the New Ebbitt January 4 with "Bohemia and the Burning of John Hus," commemorative of the five hundredth anniversary of the Council of Constance.

FRANCE REMOVES BAN
ON COTTON CARGOES

Shipments to Foreign Ports Will Now Be Considered as Non-Contraband.

The last obstacle to safe shipment of cotton to all nations, whether belligerent or neutral, was removed today when French, in a note delivered to the State Department by Ambassador Jusserand, announced that it had joined with Great Britain in the treatment of cotton as non-contraband.

The State Department immediately announced that "it will now be possible for the cotton exporters of the country to deliver to all nations great supplies of important commodities."

Ambassador Girard at Berlin has cabled the State Department that 2,000,000 bales of cotton is a conservative estimate needed in Germany in 1915, while the estimate of the required material for boys' 5 to 16 years; new leathered Bulgarian styles.

The prevailing prices for cotton in Bremen and other German cotton centers are given by Mr. Girard at 13 and 15 cents per pound, after allowing 2 cents a pound for freight.
